CUP.21 g.36/14

Horrid Deed ! ! !

WHEREAS ſome wicked and ill-diſpoſed Perſon did, in the Night of the 14th, or early in the Morning of the 15th of Nov. inſtant, cut the SINEW of a COW, above the Hough, the Property of JOHN COCKS, Pitman, when grazing in a Field at Twizell, near Cheſter-le-Street, which has been the Cauſe of her Death.—The Atrocity of this vile Action is, if poſſible, increaſed, by the Diſtreſs it has brought upon the poor Sufferer and his Family; and in order to bring to Juſtice and Puniſhment the Perſon or Perſons guilty thereof, a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered, to whoever will give Information of the Offender or Offenders, to be paid on his, her, or their Conviction, by applying to JOHN MARTINDALE, of the FLATTS, near Cheſter-le-ſtreet aforeſaid.

Nov. 29*th*, 1799.

Newcaſtle upon Tyne: Printed by S. Hodgson.